Faubus Closes All High Schools at Little Rock

City Tense as States' Rights Fight Is Begun In Integration Struggle

BY ROBERT E. FORD

Little Rock, Ark.—This city sat tense and fearful today while the greatest states' rights struggle since the Civil war swirled through it. Gov. Orval Faubus threw his reserve power into the momentous conflict yesterday when he ordered all Little Rock high schools closed as of Monday, the day scheduled for fall term to open. He acted because Central High school faced mixing of white and Negro students in classes for the second straight year. He stated he sought to prevent violence which would result if integration occurred. The governor moved only hours after the U. S. Supreme court said in effect that Central High, scene of racial riots and guarded by troops last year, must continue integration no matter how violent the opposition. Faubus' apparent objective is to close the four Little Rock high schools — including all-Negro Horace Mann High — then open Central High and possibly others as private schools with the state paying tuition. He appears to believe the state thus can avoid forced integration because the supreme court has not issued integration orders involving private schools. The legislature two weeks ago gave him power to close schools faced with forcible racial mixing in classes. An 1875 law makes the use of public school facilities by private groups legal. Minutes after he signed the school closing bill, Faubus accepted a summons in a weird state court suit filed by an outspoken segregationist attorney for a woman who is a segregationist but does not want the schools closed. The suit questions constitutionality of the school closing bill. The timing of the suit led newsmen to believe that it involved more than met the eye, but they were unable to determine its exact meaning. The justice department apparently was prepared to throw its weight behind the supreme court decision. Malcolm R. Wilkey, an assistant attorney general assigned to the Little Rock problem, said the department has considered the possibility of Faubus' school closing order in its legal planning. Plans Not Disclosed Neither he nor other justice department officials would say what the agency planned to do. Nor would they outline what legal steps they consider possible to meet Faubus' challenge. Meanwhile, Henry V. Rath resigned from the school board. He said he quit because he felt he no longer could effectively serve education. He acted in complete disregard to the social customs of the south. The court indicated an unwillingness to consider local officials. Public officials who in the past have shown no hesitancy in expressing their views suddenly began snapping "no comment" to questions. The corridor to the U. S. district attorney's office was barred by a newly installed gate. Arkansas' only federal judge, John Miller, announced he will return Monday to Little Rock. He has been holding court in Memphis.

Shuts School In Virginia

Richmond, Va.—Warren county, the latest Virginia locality in which school integration had been ordered, will become the first to shut down a school under the state's program of massive resistance to race mixing.

Began in August, 1957, "Thus by August industrial production had recovered more than one-half the decline from August, 1957, to the April low," the board said.

August, 1957, when the index stood at 145, is generally accepted as the starting point of the recession.

Few government or private economists last spring, when the index had sagged to 126, were willing to predict more than minor gains by the end of the year.

The reserve board made special note that August's widespread increases in activity included gains in industries which make machinery and industrial equipment.

Such a development usually indicates increased business spending on plant construction and modernization and foreshadows the opening of new job opportunities.

Thus the school closure law, the ultimate weapon in Virginia's war to prevent racial mixing in its public schools, dealt its initial blow to an upper Shenandoah valley area with a relatively small Negro population. The law automatically closes any school which is integrated for any reason.

Yet it appeared only a matter of days until the same law might close schools in Norfolk, Charlottesville and possibly Arlington county, a Washington suburb. In all these localities, federal district judges have ordered the integration of schools.

Announcement of the governor's action in assuming "all power and control" over the Front Royal school was made at the governor's office last night in the form of a letter to the county school board and superintendent. The governor was not present. An aide handed out copies of the letter to newsmen.

Ike Urges Russian Effort to Put End To Chinese Attacks

Criticizes Khrushchev for 'One-Sided Denunciation'

Newport, R. I.—President Eisenhower today appealed to Russia to prevail on red China to renounce use of force in the Formosa strait area and turn to peaceful negotiations. In a new message to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Eisenhower criticized the Kremlin leader for what he called a "one-sided denunciation" of United States policy in the Far East. At the same time, Eisenhower made it perfectly clear that the U. S. has no intention of pulling its forces out of the Far East, as Khrushchev demanded early this week.

No Letter to Chinese Referring to Khrushchev's 4,000-word letter to him, Eisenhower said: "I regret to say I do not see in your letter any effort to find that common language which could indeed facilitate the removal of the danger existing in the current situation in the Taiwan (Formosa) area. On the contrary, the description of this situation contained in your letter seems designed to serve the ambitions of international communism rather than to present the facts. I also note that you have addressed no letter to the Chinese communist leaders urging moderation upon them."

Quemoy Ships Again Repulsed

4 Nationalist Vessels Forced Back by Communist Fire

Taipei.—Communist artillery fire drove another nationalist supply convoy off the beach at Quemoy in pre-dawn darkness today. Four nationalist Chinese supply ships were forced to withdraw after unloading only a small portion of their cargo. Within one hour the reds poured more than 7,000 high explosive shells into Liaofo beach where the vessels were trying to unload badly needed supplies for the besieged nationalist outpost island.

This was the third unsuccessful attempt by the nationalists to run the red blockade with U. S. warships escorting them within three miles of Quemoy. It was the first attempt under cover of darkness.

Some Supplies Landed A spokesman for the U. S. Taiwan (Formosa) defense command said neither damage to the nationalist ships nor casualties was reported. The American spokesman said the ships remained at the beach for 25 minutes before the heavy fire forced them to withdraw and during that time some cargo was unloaded. He did not say how much, but it could have been only a small portion.

Bank Manager Fails Holdup Attempt and Helps Capture Robber

Detroit.—A branch bank manager outbluffed an armed holdup man and calmly directed his capture yesterday. Four customers and 20 employees were in the Manufacturers National bank in suburban Northville when a man identified by police later as Richard A. Valpey, 35, Fort Myers, Fla., walked in with a note in his hand. Valpey shoved the note at Leo Kalota, 30, bank manager. It demanded $12,000 in $100 bills and said Valpey had a bottle of nitroglycerine and a loaded gun in a briefcase.

After reading the note twice, Kalota turned to his secretary and said distinctly, "Please ring the police."

"When I said that, the man made a motion toward his briefcase and I made one toward my desk drawer," Kalota said. "Then we just sort of looked at each other and the police came running in."

Valpey was held on an attempted robbery charge.

Party Chiefs in Verbal Clash

Butler Lashes at Defiance of Law Over Integration

Kansas City.—Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said last night: "I do not believe that open defiance of the law of the land as interpreted by the supreme court represents the opinion of the majority of Democrats."

This statement came during a shouted exchange between Butler and the Republican national chairman, Meade ALCORN, who forecast a third party in the 1960 elections.

The two were members of a question and answer panel at the annual Griddle show of the Kansas City Press club. Here was the sequence:

Butler (addressing Alcorn): "I see by the papers that you were in Little Rock just before you came here. Did you have anything to say about integration while you were down there?"

Criticizes Faubus

Alcorn: "I'll say one thing, Mr. Butler. I can make the same speech in Little Rock as I can in Chicago and that's more than you can do. Have you been in Little Rock lately?"

Butler said he did not plan to go to Little Rock and did not subscribe to the views expressed by Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas, also a Democrat. He said he did not believe a vast majority of Democrats supported a man who "openly flouted the law of the land."

Alcorn: "I'll say we are going to face a much weakened Democratic party in the 1960 elections and a third party made up of southern conservatives who will leave the Democrats at the open invitation just extended by Mr. Butler."

Butler: "Well, I say that I speak for a vast majority of the Democratic party when I express my views on integration. I do not believe that open defiance of the law of the land as interpreted by the supreme court represents the opinion of a majority of Democrats."

Another heated exchange took place when a questioner said:

"Mr. Butler, we see that in New York state the Republicans have matched you millionaires for millionaires. How much longer are you going to support the party of the common man?"

Butler: "The Republicans are simply trying to match Averell Harriman (in the race for governor) with a millionaire. Nelson Rockefeller. There is nothing in the fact that some Democrats have considerable money. They still support government for all the people. They don't represent special interests like the Republicans."

LC-K, Menasha Meet for Title On Sunday

Championship Tilt At Chuter Park Starts at 2 O'clock

Little Chute — While most sports minded fans are turning their attention to the opening of the football season, the Fox Valley Baseball league will reach its climax Sunday afternoon when the Menasha Maes and Little Chute - Kimberly Papermakers meet for the championship at 2 o'clock at American Legion park here.

The teams have squared the 3-game series at a game each. The Maes came through with a 5 to 3 victory here last Sunday to force the third tilt. Earlier LC-K had topped the Menashans by a 8 to 7 count.

Both teams have been idle since the game last Sunday and are expected to be at full strength. Only Bob Schmidt, LC-K mound star, will miss the game. He has been out the last two weeks with an injury to the shoulder of his throwing arm.

Starting Pitchers — LC-K will probably send Al Harke to the mound in an effort to gain the title. Harke has defeated the Maes three times this season. Faye Mehlberg will be in reserve and will get to see action if Harke gets in trouble. Mehlberg pitched a 5-hitter against the Maes last Sunday in a losing effort.

Menasha will counter with Mort Drury or Gene Gries. Both have recorded wins over the Papermakers during the season. Gries was the winning hurler last week although he allowed seven base hits.

The game is being played at the Little Chute park because the largest crowd of the first two games was recorded here last Sunday.

21 Scouts Start Weekend Outing

Seymour — Scout leaders, Norman Reitz, Thomas Reed and Ed Gerl will accompany 21 boys to Point Beach state park, Two Rivers, for a weekend outing.

The group left the scout house at 5 o'clock this morning and will return Sunday. While there the patrols will compete in cook - outs and study compassing, mapping, Morse code and take a five mile hike.

They packed their equipment in trailers on Thursday evening and will go by cars.

Adult Program Of Recreation Set for Armory

Mayor Meets With Men to Schedule
Use of Building

Waupaca — Initial plans for the first men's recreation night at the Waupaca armory have been worked out by Mayor Lloyd Matheson and about a dozen interested men.

The purpose of the program is to give men a chance to get exercise, entertainment and relaxation. A portion of Waupaca men bowl and curl during winter months, but the majority do neither.

Gymnasium facilities available at the armory are ideal for an adult recreation program, said the mayor. The gym has been unavailable until now because the high school used it before the new gym was constructed this year.

Initial Program
Initially, the program will probably offer basketball, volleyball, table tennis, shuffleboard and cards.

Setting up teams and having competition was discussed, but the group decided that leisure recreation and exercise should be the goal instead of competition. They felt that competition keeps the best players participating while the poorer watch and lose interest.

The mayor told the group that some residents had asked him why the gym should not be sold since the high school no longer uses it. Kenneth Glover summed up comment by saying the armory should be Waupaca's winter South park. Mayor Matheson added it was purchased for $23,000 and is worth three times that much now.

He said he hopes to see utilization of the armory day and night. Presently the national guard meets there, roller skating is available two nights a week, shooting another and basketball during several afternoons.

Also organizing for recreation is a group of basketball teams composed of younger men, said the mayor. They also will be utilizing the armory facilities.

The first men's night will be either the first Wednesday or Thursday of Oct., depending on arrangements made.

Soft Water Helps Nation's No. 1 Homemaker — Mrs. America of 1959, Mrs. Helen Giesse of Cleveland, Ohio, says that one of her favorite modern homemaking conveniences is her new Culligan Automatic water softener. According to Mrs. America, "Soft water is just wonderful for laundry, dishes, bathing and all housework. Best of all, it gives me more time to spend with my family. Your local Culligan dealer points out that the softener in the home of the nation's No. 1 Homemaker provides unlimited hot and cold soft water, and is completely automatic. The water supply in Mrs. America's home is seven grains hard, while in the Fox Cities area the water hardness ranges from five to 50 grains. Mrs. Giesse, recently judged the country's top homemaker, is the mother of three children. She does all her own housework, and is active in Cub Scouts, PTA, League of Women Voters, and teaches Sunday school.

"Do Your Laundry While You do your shopping," is the motto of the Coin-O-Matic Do It Yourself Laundry, which opened recently at 204 W. Wisconsin avenue, across from the Krambo Food store. Ideal for the working housewife who must do the washing after a busy day at work, Appleton's first completely Self-Service coin operated laundry features comfortable surroundings to wait in while the wash is being done, and a convenient location for shopping, in the event there is a list to be filled. Coin-O-Matic is open 24 hours a day for the ultimate in convenience to people with unusual or extra-busy work schedules, the management of the firm announced Friday.

To operate the completely automatic washing and drying facilities at Coin-O-Matic, a person simply inserts a coin in one of the automatic washers, and your clothing starts in average shopping time to wash. The machines are designed especially to operate chimes, Norman Ehle owner of the new firm said Friday. All the ingredients and equipment necessary for proper washing and drying of your clothes are available at the firm. Besides being open 24 hours a day, the firm is also open 7 days a week. Free parking for customers is available on the firm's own lot at the west side of the building. Prices are reasonable: washing for an 8-lb. load is 20c; and drying costs 10c for 10 minutes. Readers were invited to visit the new firm at their convenience for an inspection of the automatic laundry facilities.

August Winter & Sons, Inc., one of Appleton's leading mechanical contractors, is currently installing one of the city's largest heating and air-conditioning systems. The picture above, which illustrates part of the installation, was taken in the main equipment room of the new Music-Drama center of Lawrence college. Some interesting statistics on this installation include the fact that nearly 100,000 pounds of galvanized sheet iron will be fabricated into ducts for the job at Winters' fully-equipped modern shop. Most of this iron arrives at the shop from the steel mills in direct-shipment trucks.

Over 10,000 feet of pipe will be used to convey steam, hot water and chilled water to heat, cool, humidify and dehumidify the air in this year-round air conditioning system, the firm said. Some of the large diameter pipe can be seen in the lower right hand corner of the picture. For long trouble-free service, August Winter & Sons employ approximately fifty qualified certified pipe welders in installing this pipe. Welded joints eliminate threaded connections, potential sources of leaks and they to solve their heating, ventilating, and plumbing problem, whether it be in home, office, store or industrial building. The firm has the largest factory-trained service department in the Fox River Valley, a service department to stand behind all installations made, a very important consideration for the customer. August Winter & Sons, Inc., office and shop is located at 1216 W. Wisconsin avenue, Appleton. Phone number to call is Regent 4-7144.

Two-Door Station Wagon to Be Added To '59 Rambler Line

American Motors will add a 2-door station wagon to its Rambler American line in 1959, word received by Staebane Nash, Forest Junction Nash and Rambler dealer, indicates.

The new model, built on a 100-inch wheelbase, is being introduced as a result of the excellent sales record of the Rambler American 2-door sedan, it was announced. The sedan model was placed on sale January 30 as the only U.S.-built small car, and production and sales have more than doubled expectations since that time.

Welcome Arrival
"We believe the American public will welcome this smaller station wagon which has ample room for five passengers," American Motors recently said. "We have had many requests from dealers and the public to bring out a station wagon companion to the popular 2-door Rambler American sedan."

Details of the new model will be announced early in October, just before it goes on sale at the 2,600 Rambler dealerships across the country.

Political Do-Nothings

A reader recently wrote the Wall Street Journal with the now familiar complaint that what the country needs is a third political party, because the Republicans and Democrats are so much alike. Thomas H. Collins of Riviera Beach, Fla., wrote a reply and in so doing fashioned a primer for the politically alert that we wish someone would give wide circulation.

Collins pointed out that the people who complain most loudly about the policies and actions of the present political parties almost always are not active in politics themselves. Yet these people "can get the kind of government (they) want by only one way — by going into politics, the American way of exercising self-government."

The power and authority to govern rests upon and has its source from the casting of ballots at primaries and elections. None of the voluntary associations of voters griping about the errors of government can carry electoral districts nor do they provide voting support sufficient to impress any candidate. . . Those connected with the policies of government disdain to associate with the party committeemen or women. Only the professionals and habitués go to political meetings. The conservative refuses to extend support fund and his personal efforts to elect anyone—even a candidate who reflects his concepts. . . While he stays home from the polls, remains ignorant of the mechanism of our method of putting magistrates in office, shuns local politics, all the recourse for his feelings is to complain and write letters to congressmen.

Soon the Farmers Can Take It Easy

Remote control is a term pretty well understood as it applies to airplanes and guided missiles. It is more familiar in the flying of model planes. Recently some few wealthy and tired gentlemen used the principle of remote control to guide power mowers about their lawns.

Recently at a tractor display in Illinois farmers were treated to the sight of driverless tractors moving various farm implements about while they performed their customary farm tasks. This was bringing comfort and ease right to the grass roots.

To impress the farmers a man walked into the field followed by a driverless tractor. The crowd was amused by the tractor which behaved like a well trained dog. When the man held up his hand it stopped, when he signaled it moved ahead or to the right or left. Actually the tractor was controlled by another man some distance away

Some People the Russians Can Have

Almost daily stories are published telling how people have risked their lives to escape from Russia or one of the satellite countries. The sequels to those stories relate how Russian agents follow the escapees and by bullying and threatening try to make them return to their homelands.

Obviously the Russians prize the control they have over their people above all things. It is not that they love these people. They may hate them sufficiently to torture them or even kill them. Their goal is simply to control them. Population means power and wealth to the Russians.

Happily the Canadians have found about 3,000 people they are willing to add to the Russian population. They are The Sons of Freedom sect of the Doukhobors of British Columbia. This sect is negotiating with the Russians on the possible relocation of its people in Russia at Canadian expense.

The Doukhobors moved into western Canada from Russia in 1898. They began at once having trouble with the Canadian government and with the provincial governments of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. After 10 years, under the leadership of Peter (The Lordly) Verigin, thousands of them moved into British Columbia. About 16 years later Verigin was killed in a time-bomb explosion on a Canadian Pacific railway train. He was succeeded by his son, Peter II, whose career brought more trouble and greater violence than his father's. His term, marked by two jail sentences, resulted in a split in the ranks of the Doukhobors and the organization of the Sons of Freedom. Peter II finally with-

The Miss America Contest

Mary Ann Mobley, 21, of Brandon, Miss., won the title of Miss America at Atlantic City with a rare display of musical and dancing talent and a high degree of intelligence. She is a beautiful girl, of course. Her story indicates that she has led a sheltered life. She is a college student and sings in the choir of the Methodist church in Brandon.

That is the record. Unfortunately, it seems to us, some news stories gave the impression that Miss Mobley won by introducing a strip-tease dance and thus somehow capitalized on the sex element. The facts are that Miss Mobley did open her act dressed in a formal gown and singing an aria from Madame Butterfly. She went directly and startlingly from that formal pose by one tug at her dress to a short Kelly green satin skirt and to singing "There's Gonna Be Some Changes Made." Another tug at the green skirt and she stood dressed in a white halter suit which was a suitable costume for the dance she presented.

It can be said that she used the strip-tease technique but that was merely because it permitted her to present a wide range of talent in a brief space of time. It

Your editor knows a great many people right here in the Fox Cities whom he has classified (to himself) as "cocktail party" or "country club" politicians — the kind who are always ready with an opinion on any issue or candidate of the day but who wouldn't be caught dead at a political meeting. These people sneer at their friends who do get into politics, become delegates to conventions, write letters or make phone calls on behalf of candidates and otherwise play a part in our political machinery. Interestingly, many of these people are liberals, or at least liberal Republicans hereabouts, instead of the conservatives about whose inactivity Collins complains.

The tragedy of it all is that so many of these people could contribute a great deal were they to become active in the party of their choice. Many of the opinions they express are founded on some pretty deep and serious thinking; they are exactly the kind of people who should be attending caucuses, conventions and other meetings where political policies are determined. But they are the kind of people who never write a letter to the editor "because my friends will kid me" or become identified with any real political activity, yet will expound long and vociferously on public issues to their neighbor across the back fence or across the dinner table, apparently feeling that in so doing they are fulfilling their obligation to the democratic way of life.

who was pushing buttons on the control panel. The control panel directed the movements of the tractor through a radio receiver on the machine.

The farmers were entertained by the performance, but no doubt most of them could picture themselves comfortably seated in their homes directing a tractor as it hauled a plow, disk, a planter, or a cultivator across broad acres.

The farmers of America have already brought the mechanization of the farm along to a point where one man can handle more acreage than ten or a dozen could a few years ago. Now with push button farming in sight there is no limit on the acreage one could cultivate. In fact one man could plow up an entire state while lolling on his front porch. What about the surplus crops? Perhaps there will be a stop button on the new model tractors.

drew from the leadership of the sect. The question of a successor has never been settled.

The lawlessness of the Sons of Freedom has been frequently on the front pages of the newspapers over the years. Its real beginning came in the depression of the early 1930s when some members of the sect lost their land and were forced off of their farms by the government.

Their protests took the form of nude parades, burnings and bombings. That has been the standard form of their rebellion against the man-made laws of Canada ever since. As usual in such disputes all of the wrongs are not on one side. Many a simple Doukhobor has been cheated by sharp-shooting Canadian real estate dealers, a fact which may have seemed to the Doukhobors to have justified some of their protests.

However all of the troubles have not been economic. One of the most difficult issues has raged around the Doukhobor children and the Canadian schools. The Freedom sect has charged the schools with teaching militarism and have refused to send its children to them. In some instances the Canadians have taken the children out of their homes and have placed them in schools maintained by the government for such children. The Canadian government has made many attempts to reach an understanding with the Freedomites but all have ended in failure.

Now the Canadians are not only willing to have this sect return to Russia, but will be happy to pay for the one-way ticket.

should be added that this young lady made the technique respectable. Her act was as clean and fine as choir singing and any efforts to make it appear otherwise must be regretted.

The Miss America contest appears to be on the way up and it is now far up from the old bathing beauty contests. Any doubt of that should have been dispelled both by Miss Mobley's victory and the appearance at the crowning of Marilyn Elaine Van Derber of Colorado who was Miss America of 1958. Last year she was on the same stage a frightened young girl. She came back a lady and a finished speaker, who took over and had complete mastery of the situation while there.

Girls interested in becoming a Miss America of the future should note that the contestants are judged on their talent in music, art, dancing, and acting as much as on their beauty. Finally they face an oral quiz which tests their intelligence and range of reading. From this distance the Miss America contest appears to be a very worthwhile project. America is fortunate that it is well handled and improving every year.

Touchy Problem to Dispose of Atomic 'Garbage'

Seek Better Ways to Get Rid of Waste

BY FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Reporter

You'd probably make your self a lot of money if you could come up with an efficient and economical "dispose-all" for the atomic energy program.

Safe handling of atomic "garbage" — referred to more politely as radioactive waste — constitutes a major and costly problem for the nation's atomic enterprise.

The Atomic Energy commission says the waste-disposal methods now in use do not involve any radiation danger to human, animal or plant life. It says its policy has been and continues to be extra-cautious in all matters of waste disposal.

Even so, the commission has as one of its major objectives the development of "better and cheaper ways" of disposal. An extensive research program is being carried on to that end.

The research is being pushed, because current quantities of waste, while considerable, are small in proportion to what can be expected when a national, and perhaps world-wide, atomic power program comes into being.

From Research

The "garbage" comes from all kinds of atomic energy development and research. Wastes in gaseous, liquid or solid form are evolved in the mining of ore, production of refined "feed" materials, operation of reactors, chemical processing of spent reactor fuels, and in the use of radioactive isotopes in medicine, agriculture and industry.

The waste currently is disposed in various ways, depending upon its form and how "hot" it is radioactively.

The methods are: (1) controlled release into the atmosphere; (2) controlled release into rivers, lakes and creeks; (3) burial at sea or at special atomic cemeteries on land; and (4) for the most potentially dangerous stuff of all, "containment" storage in huge underground steel tanks.

The "containment" method — as distinguished from true disposal — is used for liquid wastes having a high level of radioactivity. These wastes result chiefly from the chemical processing of reactor products.

Wastes of this character, no matter where produced, are stored at one of three AEC sites: the plant at Hanford, Wash.; the National Reactor Station at Arco, Idaho; or the plant at Aiken, S. C.

Storage Tanks

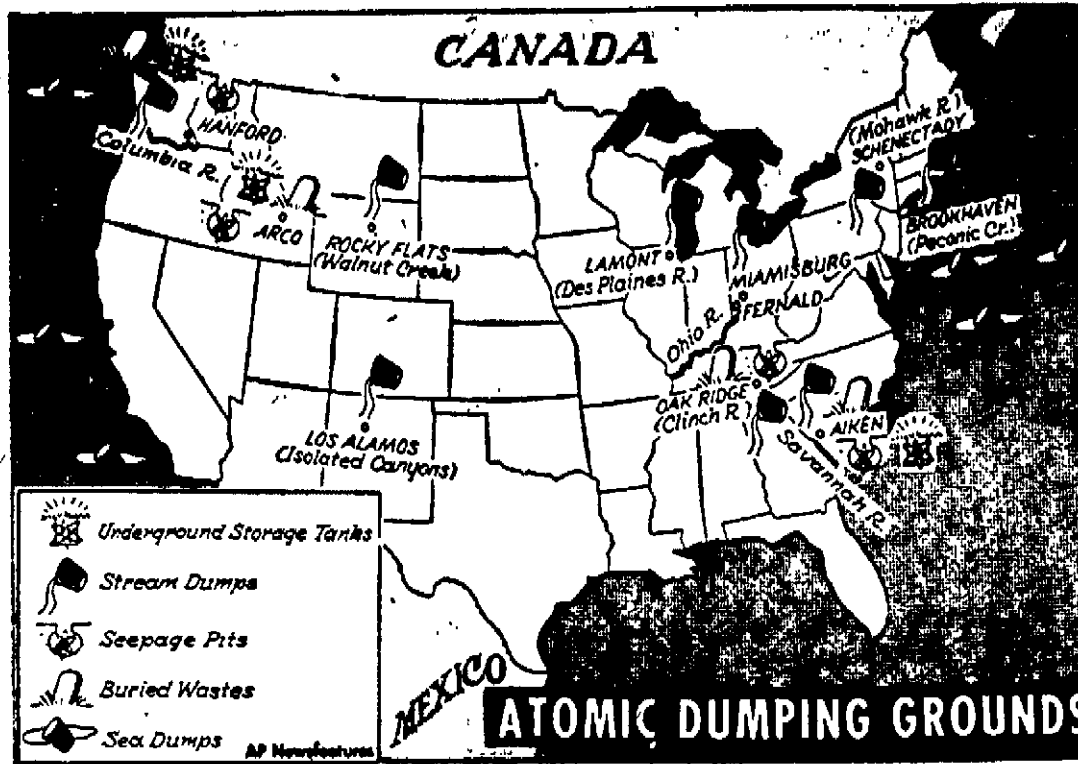

The storage tanks vary in size from tens of thousands of gallons up to one million gallons or more. Since the beginning of the atomic program, more than 65 million gallons of "high level" liquid wastes have been placed in "containments."

But predictions are that with the growth of an atomic energy industry accumulated waste of this type could total 200 million gallons by 1980; 600 million by 1990 and 2,400,000 million by the year 2000.

And atomic officials say that while the storage method is safe, it is not the final answer from the economic standpoint.

"Low-level" liquid wastes are released into nearby streams after being kept in temporary storage for a short time to further reduce their radioactivity.

AEC's big plutonium production plant at Hanford, Wash., discharges such waste into the Columbia River. The Rocky Flats installation near Denver employs Walnut Creek; the Argonne National Laboratory at Lamont, Ill., uses the Des Plaines River; the Mound Laboratory at Miamisburg, Ohio, and the feed materials plant at Fernald, Ohio, both use the Miami River; Oak Ridge, Tenn., National Laboratory discharges it into the Clinch River; the Aiken plant uses the Savannah River; the Knolls Atomic Power Laboratory at Schenectady, N. Y., uses the Mohawk River; the Brookhaven National Laboratory at Upton, Long Island, uses "Peconic Creek".

Dump in Canyons

The Los Alamos (New Mexico) Scientific Laboratory dumps such low-level liquid wastes in isolated canyons.

The AEC says a periodic check is kept on the radioactivity of streams that are so used, and that it is well below a level that would be dangerous for human, animal and plant life.

Some "low-level" liquid wastes also are released into "open seepage pits" at several places, notably the plants at Hanford, Oak Ridge, Arco and Aiken. The AEC says there has been no significant transmission to drinking water sources from this practice.

"Solid" wastes, by and large, are characterized by low or medium levels of radioactivity, and their handling and disposal, says AEC, "have at no time constituted a serious technical problem."

Most of these are buried underground — at "cementerios" located at the Hanford, Arco, Oak Ridge and Aiken plants.

The wastes consist of such things as contaminated machine parts and trash, such as a piece of flooring contaminated by a "spill" of radioactive hot stuff in a laboratory.

Dispose at Sea

Some of this "solid" waste, and some low-level liquid waste in solidified form, is disposed of at sea. But, to date, such disposal has been comparatively limited. The "garbage" is imbedded in concrete within steel drums, small casket-like concrete vaults or within still larger concrete blocks.

The containers are dumped at sea in mile-deep water at two main locations — 120 miles off the New Jersey coast in the Atlantic ocean and 30 miles west of San Francisco in the Pacific. There are two other dumping areas in the Atlantic, one about 400 miles off the coast between Boston and New York; the other about 120 miles east of Norfolk, Va.

In the Pacific, there is a second dumping area 60 miles off the southern California coast in the Santa Cruz basin. A small amount of waste also has been dumped in the ocean west of Seattle, Washington.

The third general type of "garbage" — waste in gaseous form — is discharged into the atmosphere through high chimney-like stacks. Release is limited to times when atmosphere conditions are such as to assure large dilution of the material at safe altitudes.

Research is directed principally towards finding better and cheaper ways of disposing of the "high-level" liquid wastes which now must be stored.

In general, possible approaches consist of reducing the volume of the stuff by converting it into solid form; possibly eliminating from it the most objectionable materials — such as strontium and cesium — which might then be used for research; and perhaps ultimately releasing the much less radioactive residue to nature.

Geologists are considering possibilities of still other methods of disposal, such as discharging the stuff into subterranean salt beds or "salt domes".

And there has even been a suggestion that "hot" wastes be shot into interplanetary space — if and when rockets for that purpose are developed.

The Public Pulse

Poll Shows Democrats Lead Republicans

BY ELMO ROPER
AND ASSOCIATES

The Democratic tide is running high in this year of congressional elections. Early this year the Democrats took a decisive lead over the Republicans, and recent nationwide survey figures show that they are holding fast to their voting margin.

In the Congressional elections next fall, which party will you be most likely to vote for, the Democratic or the Republican?

	Summer 1958	Early 1958
Democratic	46%	42%
Republican	30	28
Will split ticket	9	9
(volunteered)
Don't know or won't vote	15	21

Leaving aside those voters who haven't yet made their voting decisions or who plan to split their tickets, this gives the Democrats 60 per cent of the decided vote, the Republicans only 40 per cent. Two years ago, when a Republican president was re-elected by a landslide, the Democrats won control of congress with 51 per cent of the total vote. Two years before that, in 1954, Mr. Eisenhower was presented with his first Democratic congress, which was elected by 52 per cent of the voters. In 1958, thus far, there appears to be a much wider Democratic margin.

Crescent Backs Artesian Wells

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the Week of Sept. 13, 1879.

The question is whether the lack of pure water as well as poor water cannot be met in Appleton by having an artesian well bored on some high plot of land in the Third and Fifth Wards to supply all of the city on the north side, to be followed in due time by another in a proper place to supply all of the Fourth Ward.

We cannot, as a city, afford to build a water-works. But the city can afford a flowing well, the water of which can be conveyed by a natural fall so that inside of three years the whole city could obtain its water supply at a very moderate cost to the general fund.

'Prison Door' Opened; Mother's Extreme Reaction Disturbs Son

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm a boy in my middle teens who was brought up in a very strict home. My father was a religious fanatic and hardly ever left the house except to go to work or to church. We were all scared to death of him, including my mother.

Ann Landers

Last year Dad died. Mother went black for two weeks then she began to act like a person who'd been let out of jail. At present she's involved with Dad's older brother who is divorced. He's a lot older than mother and has had one affair after another. She knows all about it.

The minister of our church gave several sermons on the subject so she doesn't go to church anymore. What can I do? I'm ashamed to face my friends. Everyone in town must be talking about my mother. Please help me. — V.F.

Guilt is personal and it doesn't rub off on relatives. There's nothing you can do about your mother's behavior except to try to understand what makes her carry on in this shameful way. Understanding may make it less painful, although it in no way excuses her.

Now that the "jailer" (your father) is no longer around, the "prisoner" (your mother) has gone wild with the joys of new-found freedom. The only thing you can do is hope she straightens out before she ruins her life. Hold your head high and make no apologies for her. Behave in a way that will reflect favorably on her—although she's acting like a fool, poor thing.

DEAR ANN: I've known a certain woman 20 years and she has many fine qualities which I admire. But she's such a liar it makes me wonder who she thinks she's kidding.

She lies particularly about prices. I know she lies because I've been with her when she bought some of these things she fibs about and apparently she forgets.

What makes people like this? Except for her tall tales she's a perfectly charming woman. —AGATHA

Dear Agatha: Many people exaggerate to make the story more interesting, or the case stronger. This is a human weakness but anyone who manufactures lies out of whole cloth has a sick personality. Such people are in a state of fantasy part of the time—strictly out of this world. Admire her for the good qualities and take the rest of it with a grain of salt.

DEAR ANN: My cousin and his wife are creating a problem. Recently my husband and I moved to this city. We cultivated some stimulating and interesting friends.

My cousin and his wife have lived here all their lives. They are good people, but dullards who contribute nothing to a group. To be blunt, they don't fit in. Last evening these relatives dropped in uninvited. After a while I was forced to suggest they leave as we were expecting some important guests. They resented it deeply and left with an injured look.

I fear I was not very tactful in this instance and my husband is annoyed with me. But how do you tell people "tactfully" to leave your home?—SNOB???

Your husband will probably be annoyed with me, too because I have no sympathy for people who drop in uninvited. You were right to refuse to be trapped in your own home.

At the same time, however, you were not only tactless but brutal. The word "important" should not have been used. This was indeed snobbish and unbecoming. It would have been far better had you asked to be excused to shower and dress for a previous engagement.

Debbie, Eddie Seek Divorce

Hollywood — The marriage of Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher, once thought to be one of Hollywood's happiest couples, is on its way to the divorce courts.

Debbie told her lawyer to get her a divorce yesterday after Eddie blasted her hopes for a reconciliation.

"A breakup was inevitable," said Eddie. "The marriage would have come to an end even if I had never known Elizabeth Taylor. I alone accept full responsibility for its failure."

Debbie seemed surprised and hurt to learn that Fisher wasn't happy with her. In a statement filled with heart-broken candor she said:

"It seems unbelievable to say that you can live happily with a man and not know he doesn't love you. But that is the truth."

Attorneys will meet next week to discuss the divorce.

In Good Taste Apartment Dweller's Problem

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: We've moved into an apartment house made up of six units all built around a small park. My wife believes it is right and proper for her to speak to strangers—men, mind you, as well as women—whom she sees out in the park or at the mail boxes. I have noticed that other women do not bid me the time of the day or remark about the weather, and I, of course, would wait for them to speak first. I'm afraid that my wife's friendliness will be misunderstood and that it would be more prudent for her to stick to conventional rules. Will you please give your opinion?

Answer: The old saying that "The roof of a friend serves as an introduction" might to a certain extent serve in a communal dwelling. Meeting the same people day after day, it would hardly be improper to say "good morning."

Party Etiquette

Dear Mrs. Post: I am giving a lunch party for a bride-to-be and am a little uncertain as to the seating arrangements. Due to the size of my dining room I cannot seat more than 10 and will have to use a card table for the other four in the living room, but close to the door of entrance. Will you please tell me whether I should sit at the large table or at the card table? Also, where should the bride and her mother be seated?

Answer: You must sit at the head of the dining table with bride on your right and her mother on your left. Seat your own family or most intimate friends at the card table.

Bowing to Stranger

Dear Mrs. Post: If someone whose face is not familiar bows to you, do you bow or ignore this seeming stranger?

Answer: You bow! It is certainly better to bow to a stranger than to cut an acquaintance whom you have failed to recognize.

The POWER of FAITH

The Poems of William Blake, who was buried in a London pauper's grave in 1827, are still an inspiration to the world, and his vital drawings influence art.

Born in poverty, he was self taught as artist and writer. The Bible was a major source of his work, which strengthened through the years and culminated in masterpieces just before his death. Some of the books that he engraved, printed, decorated and bound have been called the most wonderful ever made by one hand.

His wife Catherine was his principal aid. He taught her to read and write, to copy his manuscripts and color his books. Often she held his hand as he wrote such lines as "I am in God's presence night and day,

"And He never turns His face away . . ."

Civilization Progresses Because Some Men Dissent

BY ANGELO PATRI

We teach and train children to follow the patterns of life of our generation — those we believe to be good. The courses of study set the kinds of knowledge, skills and beliefs that the past generations have followed successfully. Each generation of youth must pick up where the last one left off and they have to know where and what that was. The knowledge of the race is the beginning for the children of the day.

They must not only know what has been learned and what has been accomplished in the learning but they must carry the accomplishment forward.

That is good as far as it goes. Each generation of youth must pick up where the last one left off and they have to know where and what that was. The knowledge of the race is the beginning for the children of the day.

Name Committee To Pick Board of Directors Slate

A special committee appointed by Chamber of Commerce President Walter Rugland to help reorganize the industrial division of the chamber will meet at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to make nominations for the board of directors.

The committee, headed by Gus A. Zuehlke, consists of M. O. Knoke, Walter K. Miller, John C. Reeve and Corwin Van Housen. After nominations are made, ballots probably will be sent to industrial division members to vote in a 12-man board of directors.

In planning the reorganization, the committee made a survey of what kind of programs other chambers are carrying on and also sent out a questionnaire asking industrialists what they thought should be included.

From the survey, 17 areas of activity were chosen as important enough to warrant attention by the local industrial division. These will be turned over to the board of directors after they are elected.

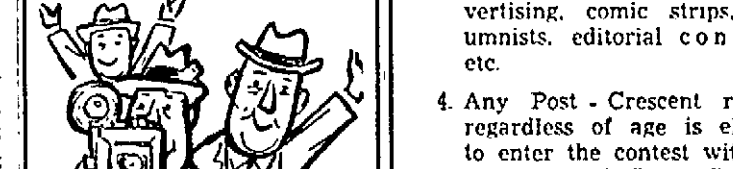

The demonstration, open to the public, is being arranged by Dr. Ralph Noren, Oshkosh. A report of all major show winners for the 1958 season also will be presented.

ing court in other parts of the state and was to have been in Harrison, Ark., on that date. About 150 federal deputy marshals from throughout the nation, some newly recruited for Little Rock action, held long and mysterious conferences and briefings in the federal building. Many wore western hats, traditional marshal's headgear.

Talks with persons in stores, on the street, in cafes and elsewhere revealed fears that worse trouble than last year's can be expected if Central High is integrated.

The supreme court's ruling that integration must proceed immediately at Central High, no matter how violent the opposition appeared to be the expected decision in official circles here.

Government officials in Washington clung to the hope that there is strong sentiment among white people in Little Rock for public school education of their children even if it means sitting in classes with negroes.

Eisenhower's Appeal

The supreme court, before it ruled, heard predictions from U. S. Dist. Judge Harry J. Lemley and Little Rock school board spokesmen that unless integration were delayed, "bedlam, chaos and turmoil" and destruction of this city's school system would result.

After the ruling, Thurgood Marshall, attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the ruling cleared the air for the school board to show cause why the governor nor anyone why an injunction should not laws signed by Faubus.

Priebe to File As Independent For Assembly

Seeks Place on Ballot Against Catlin, Zingsheim

Kenneth E. Priebe today announced he will file nomination papers to run as an independent for Outagamie county's First district assembly seat in the Nov. 4 election.

The veteran southside alderman lost to former Assemblyman Ken Priebe Mark Catlin, Jr., by about 480 votes in a 4-man race for the Republican nomination in Tuesday's primary.

Priebe made his announcement with the following statement:

"Because of the overwhelming total vote cast for the opposition candidates for First District assemblyman, a total of 6,129 votes as compared with 2,761 votes received by the nominated Republican candidate, there is a feeling among many voters that the primary election does not reflect the will and viewpoint of the majority."

The unofficial vote in the primary showed Catlin with 2,761, Priebe with 2,281, Harold Froehlich with 2,041, and Chris Mullen with 1,807.

Priebe, 45, of 1206 S. Ritger street, now in his sixteenth year as an alderman, is an insurance broker.

Needs Signatures
To file as an independent under state law, a candidate must get signatures numbering from 8 to 10 per cent of the total vote cast in the district for governor in the last election. For Priebe this means between 1,474 and 1,843 signatures on his nomination papers. The papers must be filed by the second Tuesday after the primary, in this case Sept. 23 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

If Priebe succeeds in getting the necessary signatures, he will gain a place on the ballot with Catlin and Democratic candidate Dick Zingsheim.

The First district is composed of Appleton and the towns of Grand Chute and Center.

UW President Greets Students

Welcomes Freshmen, Calls Influx a Blood Transfusion

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison—A throng of new students at the University of Wisconsin freshman convocation had a first introduction to the ideas of the University's new president, Dr. Conrad A. Elvehjem.

"It is not our job to tell you what to think," President Elvehjem told 2,600 eager new students enrolled for first year studies at the state's largest school.

"It is our job to train free, independent and vigorous minds to analyze events, exercise judgment and distinguish facts from propaganda and truth from half truth," he said.

Increased Vigor
He described the influx of new students to the campus as a "blood transfusion."

"It causes it to pulse with new life, to operate with increased vigor. You represent communities large and small, every state in the union, and countries beyond our shores. We welcome your eagerness, for it challenges us to direct it into channels that are productive for you and for our society. It is our duty to keep alive your chances for liberal learning," said Elvehjem.

Lawrence 1st '11' Sparkles

Schulze, Mulford Pace Offense in Romp Over Reserves

The first team of the Lawrence college varsity football squad romped over the second team in a major scrimmage at Whiting field Friday. The winners scored seven touchdowns, the losers none.

Sparking the attack of the first squad was the hard running of left halfback Dave Mulford and fullback Gary Scovel and the brilliant quarterbacking of Jim Schulze. Schulze passed capably and directed the first team's multiple offense niftily.

The Vike first string used the single wing and T formations about equally.

Sutherland Shines
Sparking the winners' offensive line was the play of Gil Sutherland, junior tackle. Sutherland was the only casualty of the hard workout, sustaining a cracked rib.

Jim Reiskyl, who joined the Vikes Tuesday after reporting late, led the charge of the first team's defensive line. Rick Ramsey and Charlie Scruggs were tough in the winners' defensive secondary.

The Vikes may have a full-scale scrimmage Tuesday, winning up their second week of 2-a-day drills. They open their season next Saturday when Coe invades.

Salesmen, Purchasers Trade Their Opinions

Buyers Decry Use of Gifts, Entertainment; Agree That It's Useless, Coming to an End

Salesmen and purchasing agents traded ideas on buyer-seller relationships Friday at a Valley Industrial Salesman's association session. The VISA members held their monthly meeting in conjunction with the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents' association meeting at the Conway hotel.

On gifts and entertainment, the purchasing agents were adamant in declaring that the practice had no effect whatsoever on buying. In fact, most gifts are a simple waste of money with duplication frequent and uselessness more so, the agents said. The day is coming, they said, when gifts and entertainment will be a thing of the past. Several companies already issue letters to all suppliers during the holiday season stating that it is contrary to company policy for employees in purchasing departments to accept gifts, it was indicated.

Both Entertain
On the matter of entertainment, most of the purchasing men pointed out that they have expense accounts and reciprocate in the matter of lunches and similar activities. "If we won't," one agent declared, "our boss wants to know what's going on."

The agents agreed that if a purchasing agent could be affected by a gift or entertainment, he could be bought by the highest bidder and he was in the wrong business. "If you can buy a man with a $1.85 gift, he won't be a purchasing agent long," one agent said.

There are times, purchasing agents agreed, that a firm has to turn down a salesman for the simple reason that the number of suppliers has to be limited. There also are matters of company policy, which are difficult to explain to salesmen.

Purchasing Agents
Discussing many firms' requirement that salesmen work through the purchasing agent rather than people in departments or in the "shop" it was pointed out that most companies do not want an un-informed purchasing agent. Talking with salesmen is a valuable experience for any purchasing man, it was indicated. Also, purchasing agents agreed, most firms do not prohibit contact with operating personnel, only that salesmen check with purchasing first. It is often a matter of timing and operating personnel are not paid to talk to salesmen, it was said.

It was also pointed out that

Era Passes Before High Court Justices

One of Great Dramas of History Enacted by Nine Thoughtful Men

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE
 Washington — It was a scene to be long remembered, one of the great dramas of our national history.

And perhaps because it was so significant it was a drama quietly and dryly underplayed. This was the supreme court of the United States assembled to hear the petition of the Little Rock school board for a 30-months' delay in integration, and a breathing spell to that city of passion and crisis.

What was it like in this, one of the gravest special sittings in generations, as the court was hearing the arguments and moving toward its decision?

First, the setting: By early morning long lines of people — white and dark — were standing in single file on the high line of marble steps that leads to the vast bronze doors of the supreme court. Some had been standing there all night.

Justices File In
 By 11:59 in the morning this room is almost painfully hushed. A few faint whispers are heard occasionally. At 12 noon the nine black leather chairs on the high bench are still empty. A small boy, a page, creeps among them, arranging them just so.

The nine justices file in, neither stiffly nor easily but in a manner in between. Their black robes rustle a bit. The arguments over Little Rock are at last reached.

Brennan of New Jersey sits eagerly upright, with the light shining on hair that cannot yet be described as gray. Next to him is Clark of Texas, a tall, rangy man, infinitely relaxed, slumped back in his chair.

Douglas of Washington state half turns his head away, holding a hand to his cheek. Black of Alabama, his face an almost alabaster paleness, seems lost in faraway thought. Then there is Chief Justice Warren of California, like the head of a large family, upright and alert, a powerful man who looks as if he could nearly lift up the whole bench in his hands.

Era Passes
 Of the slight figure of Frankfurter of Massachusetts only the head can be seen above the bench. Burton of Ohio, the sternest-looking member, sits in absolute stillness. Harlan of New York is on the very edge of his chair. Whittaker of Kansas, the junior member of the bench, looks remote down at its far end.

As the lawyers' arguments open, the justices begin to interrupt, calmly, easily, being neither friendly nor unfriendly but only casual, much as cultivated strangers might speak to each other in a club car. Here is a national issue of a severity we have not known since the Civil war, but everything being said in this great room is hardly above the conversational tone.

A whole era is passing before the eyes of the people here. This is a turn in time, in tradition, in ancient practices, a fork in the road of a kind that the supreme court has not often approached in more than a century and a half.

 Beaver Valley 4-H Gives to Foundation
 Neenah — Beaver Valley 4-H club voted to give $10 toward the state 4-H foundation project when it met this week at the Clayton school. It also decided to have another paper drive and to have a record hop. In charge of the record hop will be Nola Harder, Kay Spiegelberg and Lyle Palmer.

A skit on civil defense was given by Kay Spiegelberg, Mary Tyrivier and Mike Klinker. For the next meeting on Oct. 20 the club hopes to have a foreign exchange 4-H member speak to the group and the parents of members. Record books were turned in at this week's meeting.

Check Ironing Board Height, Advises Agent
 Oshkosh — An ironing board should be high enough so you can keep a straight up-right posture, yet low enough that there is no strain on your arms, across the shoulders or down your back. To check the correct height, stand with both feet firmly on the floor. Move the iron back and forth toward the point of the board, checking the strain areas.

When ironing in a seated position, try the board height from your normal position, checking the strain in the same areas, suggests Miss Lois Klusmeyer, county home agent.

Burdette Fires 3-Hitter, Blanks Cardinals, 6-0

Aaron Homers, Doubles, Triples In Four Trips

Milwaukee — (AP) — Lew Burdette was master of the mound and Hank Aaron was power at the plate Friday night and the mixture pulled the Milwaukee Braves another notch closer to their second straight National league title. While the Braves were beating the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-0, the second-place Pittsburgh Pirates were trimmed, 7-3, by the Los Angeles Dodgers. The results put the Braves 7½ games out in front and reduced their magic number to six. That means any combination of Milwaukee victories and Pirate defeats totalling six will give the Braves the title.

Best of Year Burdette's 3-hit pitching performance was his best of the year and gave him his seventeenth triumph after two false starts. It was his third shutout of the campaign. He fanned five and didn't give up a walk.

The right-hander retired the first 12 Cardinals in order, striking out three of the first six, and didn't allow a hit until Ken Boyer singled leading off in the fifth. A double play removed the Cardinal runner as the side again went down in order.

Bobby Gene Smith singled leading off in the sixth and J. Noren did the same as the first batter in the seventh. Smith died on base and Noren went out stealing.

While Burdette, who has 10 defeats, was holding the Cardinals in check, Aaron was having his best showing at the plate since Labor day when he last drove in a run.

The right fielder knocked in four runs, getting three of them on his twenty-ninth homer.

MU's Zhukie Says Knee Improving

Milwaukee — (AP) — Coach Johnnie Druze was to send his Marquette university football team through a 2-hour game scrimmage today, the Warriors' last before their opener with South Dakota State next Saturday.

The scrimmage was to give Druze a chance to see how well he fared on his latest player change. He shifted 214-pound Jim Welsh from center to tackle Friday.

There was good news from the Warriors' sick bay. Halfback Tim Zhukie, one of Marquette's fastest runners, tested he injured knee and said he'll probably be ready for the South Dakota game.

Speedy, Opportunistic AHS '11' Blanks Menasha, 12-0

2,000 See Roemer Sparkle

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN

Menasha — Using speed and opportunism to compensate for its reduced heft, the 1958 Appleton High school football team topped Menasha, 12-0, Friday night in the non-conference opener for both.

Bob "Birdie" Roemer whirled past the Bluejays on a 50-yard touchdown flight on AHS' first scrimmage play to send the Terrors winging toward their seventh straight victory in a 2-season span.

Nussbaum Goes Over The assemblage of approximately 2,000 first-nighters at Butte des Morts field saw Roemer also set up the insurance score with a 27-yard run-back of an intercepted pass in the second period. Quarterback John Nussbaum finished the job six plays later with a 1-foot quarterback sneak.

The sure-tackling Terror defensive unit made the 12-point margin stick during the final 32 minutes of play to assure Ade Dillon of his fifth coaching win in six tries against Carl Steffen (the sixth game of their rivalry ended in a tie).

AHS defenders, who held the Jays to 33 yards in the second half, showed their mettle best early in the fourth period.

The Jays, after getting the ball on the AHS 20 on a mis-fired punt play, needed just 2 feet for a first down. But linebacker Bob Henning and end Ron Abel spilled running star Tom Stepanski for a 2-yard loss on the 12 to blot out the Jays' last serious threat.

Taves Recovers Menasha's biggest team in several years once first downed the Terrors, 10 to 6, but made only one other scoring overture. With three minutes of the first half left, the Jays reached the AHS 28. But, after three unsuccessful Menasha maneuvers, quarterback Dave Robinson's pass was picked off by Roemer on the 5.

The Terrors made two sorties deep into Jay territory, in addition to their brace of scores. A third-period march on the 14, as center, Dick Taves recovered a fumble. A four-quarter trek got as far as the Menasha 15 when a holding penalty pushed the Terrors to the rear.

The Jays' hard-running Stepanski—an inside as well as outside threat—was the night's top rusher, accounting for 80 of the Jays' 117 net yards.

Mike Franzke and Roemer, the Terrors' jack-rabbit halfbacks, turned to Page 8, Col. 3

Appleton's Bob "Birdie" Roemer would be tackler as he speeds toward a first-period touchdown against Menasha High school Friday night. Roemer's 50-yard run helped the Terrors score a 12-0 win in the season's opener at Menasha.

'Opposites' Meet In Finals of U. S. Amateur

San Francisco — (AP) — Lanky Charlie Coe, the former champ who has been beating unknowns, today meets little known Tommy Aaron, who's whipped some big names for the National Amateur Golf championship.

The United States Golf association couldn't have designated two greater opposites for the 36-hole final if it had tried — a veteran against a youngster whose home town doesn't even have a golf course.

Coe, a 34-year-old oil broker from Oklahoma City, won the title in 1949 and never came this close again although playing in each subsequent tournament.

1st Amateurs Charlie stands an even 6 feet and weighs 140. Aaron, a former All-Georgia quarterback at Gainesville High, who now attends the University of Florida, stands 6-2 and weighs 185. This is his first U. S. Amateur although he has won the Southeastern conference crown twice.

In Friday's semifinals, Coe routed Cincinnati salesman Roger McManus, 3 and 2, while Aaron overwhelmed UCLA's Dick Foote 10 and 9. The par busting Southern's margin was the largest since Billy Maxwell of North Texas State, now among the top pros, whipped J. C. Benson by the same count in the 1951 semi-finals. Billy went on to win the title. Still, it didn't match Coe's 11 and 10 victory over Rufus King in the 1949 final when Charlie tipped the scale at a scanty 125.

Mac's Play LC-K '9' In Payoff Tiff Sunday

The well-matched Menasha Macs and Little Chute-Kimberly Papermakers will shoot the works Sunday afternoon in their quest for the 1958 pennant of the Fox River Valley Baseball league.

The teams have come down to the wire in their best-of-3 series. The deciding clash will start at 2 o'clock in the Little Chute park.

LC-K, second-round champion, triumphed in the playoff opener, 8-7. The first-half champion Macs bounced back to tie it, 5-3, last Sunday.

Lefty Gene Gries is the probable starting pitcher for the defending league champion Macs. Gries started each of the other playoff games. Mort Drury, another southpaw, will also be on call for the Macs.

The Papermakers are likely to start a righthander — either Al Harker or Bob Schmidt. Harker has won two of three decisions from the Macs this year, while Lefty Fayt Mehlberg is the third available LC-K pitcher.

LC-K has won three of its five games with the Macs this season.

Tousey Scores Both Winner's Touchdowns

BY JIM HARP

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Kimberly — St. John High copped a hard-fought, 13-6 victory over Kimberly here Friday night as the two rivals opened the football season before a capacity crowd.

The victory ended the Little Chute win string to 10 straight, stretching over three seasons. It was the second successive triumph over the Papermakers.

Tim Tousey scored both St. John touchdowns and shared ground gaining honors with junior fullback Ed Hammen. Tousey snared a Don Hearden aerial midway in the second period and scampered 47 yards to pay dirt. With a minute left in the half he broke off tackle and raced 54 yards for the second TD. Hammen was successful on one of two conversion tries, by placement.

Jensen Scores Kimberly's lone touchdown came in the third quarter when Hearden lofted a long aerial to Darrell Jensen who had outdistanced the Chute secondary.

St. John displayed a pounding offensive attack that netted them 266 yards on the ground, more than double that of the Papermakers. Kimberly had the edge in the air with 91 yards on five completions compared to 23 yards on a successful pass for the Dutchmen.

The Papermakers were pounding on the touchdown door in the first period when they recovered a Chuter fumble on the St. John 31. Hearden, who sparkled on scout-end keepers all night, accounted to the 13 behind sharp blocking. After a line play for two yards, Hearden took it again and lugged the pigskin to the two and a first down.

Pass Is Short Two tries off tackle by Dave Schimmers set the Papermakers back to the four, a pass was short of Jack Lamers' hands and Dan Vandenberg's end sweep was

Seymour Tips Bulldogs On Final Play, 12-6

Prelipp Fires to Wendt for Both Indians' Scores

New London — A determined Seymour High school football team scored a touchdown in the last play of the game here Friday night to down the New London Bulldogs, 12 to 6, in a non-conference contest at the Hatten Memorial park stadium.

After a scoreless first half, New London took the second half kickoff to the 39. After an incomplete pass failed, Ray Langner, left halfback, burst through a big hole on the right side of the line, reversed his field and ran 61 yards for a New London touchdown.

Started to Jail Jim Magalska's extra point kick was blocked by Seymour's left halfback and co-captain, Lynn Prelipp. When Seymour's offense

Seymour's punt gave the Bulldogs possession on their own 39 where two plays later, the visitors interplayed one of Magalska's passes at the line of scrimmage. After being pushed back to the New London 44, Prelipp passed to End Byron Wendt for a touchdown. Seymour threw an incomplete.

Eight Packers Get Final Try Tonight

McLean Must Cut Squad From 46 to 38 Players by Sunday

Winston Salem, N.C. — (AP) — The Green Bay Packers go after their third straight National Football league exhibition victory tonight against the Washington Redskins.

McLean is expected to take up where he left off against the Giants last week and turn loose his running backs.

A good bet to be among the first to test the Redskins' defense is halfback Dick Christy, the Packers' No. 3 draft choice from North Carolina State. Christy, too, has been sidelined of late with a bad

At least five Packers are on the doubtful list, but all of them with the exception of end Gary Knafele may be available for limited duty. Jim Shanley, free agent from Oregon, and Jim Taylor, second draft choice from Louisiana State. Shanley and Taylor showed up well in the Packers' 41-20 victory over New York; Shanley getting 46 yards and Taylor 33, both on seven carries.

Perfect Blend All told, McLean's club piled up 166 yards rushing against the Giants to provide a perfect blend for a passing attack featuring quarterbacks Bart Starr, "Babe" Parilli and Joe Francis.

The Redskins won't be easy. They also have a 2-game winning streak in the works and, according to President George Preston Marshall, their best team since 1945 when the aging Sammy Baugh piloted the club to an 8-2 record and the Eastern Division championship.

The game will start at 8 p.m., Wisconsin time.

Plan Would Raise Capacity at Braves' Park

Milwaukee — (AP) — More seats and a moving sidewalk to transport fans to the upper deck were proposed Friday by the County Park commission, which recommended a one-million dollar improvement program for County stadium, home of the Braves.

The plan providing 4,300 more seats and an alternate proposal costing $354,000 were sent to the County board for consideration.

The commission proposed adding the 4,300 seats to the third stands along the third State. Christy, too, has been sidelined of late with a bad

In New Section The moving sidewalks would be installed in the new section, and on the first baseline where a grandstand extension was added in 1954.

Also proposed were construction of a 5-foot wide outfield to replace a wire fence, moving all bleacher seats up to the barrier and raising them five feet to provide a view over the wall, and the erection of 6,100 improved bleacher seats.

The second plan would provide 7,560 new bleacher seats, and a moving sidewalk that would not improve the grandstand.

Weyauwega — Scoring on a pair of long runs, the Weyauwega High school football team nipped Kiel, 12-7, in the 1958 season opener here Friday night. On the first play from scrimmage, Weyauwega fullback Montel Ziepkie blasted 64 yards around his own right end for a 6-0 Wega lead. A passing attempt for the extra point failed. Kiel went in front, 12-7, in the fourth quarter on a short pass from quarterback Gene Vogel to left half Bill Karls. Karls whipped an aerial to end Cliff Heus for the lead point.

But the Indians moved back ahead as left half Jim Billington returned the kickoff 75 yards down the right sideline. The conversion attempt again failed. Kiel is the alma mater of Weyauwega Coach Carlton Goodrich.

Len Matthews Outpoints Tibbs In 10-Rounder

Philadelphia — Len Matthews was as happy as a kid with a new toy after outpointing tough Tommy Tibbs in their 10-round scrap at the Arena last night. "Now everyone ought to be convinced I can box and can go 10 rounds," said the 19-year-old Philadelphia lightweight who won 12 of his previous 13 fights by knockout and had averaged 31 rounds per fight. "Sure I tried to knock him out when I had him in trouble in the tenth round, but my manager is right. Winning on points is the best thing that could happen to me. I've got to realize you can't win them all by knockouts," Matthews philosophized in his dressing room.

Turley Pockets 21st Win, Blanking White Sox, 5-0, on 4-Hit Twirling

By The Associated Press Bob Turley is the winningest pitcher the New York Yankees have had in seven years. But if Casey Stengel finally is smiling again, it's because of what went on in the bullpen while his big right-hander was winning No. 21 Friday night. No Yankee had won 21 since Vic Raschi and Ed Lopat in 1951 until Turley blanked the White Sox, 5-0, with a 4-hitter at Chicago. He didn't have any real trouble, but when an infield hit and a walk loaded the bases with two out in the seventh inning, Stengel waved to the bullpen.

On Shelf 2 Weeks The man who went to work was "Whitey" Ford, the stubby southpaw ace whose ailing arm has been one of Stengel's big worries. With the World Series (the Yanks can clinch a tie for the American league pennant by winning today) little more than two weeks away, Ford hadn't been himself for a month.

Ford has been on the shelf two weeks, but after Friday night's bullpen workout Stengel decided he could be a starter in Sunday's doubleheader at Kansas City. With their magic number down to three, the Yankees could clinch the flag against the A's. Elsewhere in the AL last night, Cleveland defeated Boston, 5-4. Detroit beat Baltimore, 3-1, and Kansas City defeated Washington, 4-3. "Rocky" Colavito's thirty-fifth home run was his second grand slam of the season, breaking a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning for the Indians. Sammy White's fifth home run broke up Gary Bell's no-hit bid in the seventh and the Cleveland rookie needed relief help for his tenth victory. Ted Bowsfield (3-1) was the loser. Boston's Pete Runnels and Ted Williams each had 1-for-4, keeping their .320 tie in the AL batting race. Kansas City's Bob Cerv, third, also was 1-for-4, dropping a point to .318. Cerv's lone hit was his thirty-fourth home run for the A's, who took sixth place and won their sixth in a row on Hee Lopez's sixteenth homer in the fifth against Pete Runnels (14-14). Ray Herbert (7-7) was the winner, with relief help from Dick Tomanek, who gave up Roy Sievers' thirty-seventh home run in the eighth. Frank Lary (15-14) gave up eight hits, but blanked the Birds over the last six innings and tripled ahead of Al Kaline's 2-out home run in the eighth that won for Detroit. Hoyt Wilhelm (2-9) was the loser as the Orioles dropped their fifth in a row and plunked to seventh place.

Manawa — Junior halfback Larry Lucht ran for one touchdown and passed for the other to pace Manawa to a season-opening 13-12 non-league football victory over Wautoma here Friday night.

But, the decisive point in the non-league game came on fullback Jerry Radtke's plunge after the second touchdown. CD Chief Says Device Lack Slows Program

Radiological Monitor Asked in December Not Received Yet

Post-Crescent News Service

Green Bay — Lack of equipment for monitoring radioactivity is hamstringing the Green Bay target area training program, Brown County Civil Defense Coordinator John Holloway told state CD officials Friday.

The equipment, which would be essential in the event of a nuclear attack, was ordered in December and has not been received, the coordinator said.

Col. John Fitzpatrick, deputy state CD director, said the radioactivity monitoring equipment was being delivered slowly. Added to this, he said, was that much of the equipment was not workable and had to be returned to the manufacturer.

15 Attend

About 15 to 50 officials asked to attend the meeting listed to five state CD officials explain the Green Bay target area's relation to the state's survival plan. The plan, first issued in February, is slated to take effect by the end of this month. The plan is basically an inventory of state resources and an outline of evacuation methods in case of a nuclear attack.

The state is divided into four target areas, four reception areas and two support areas. The Green Bay target area is composed of Brown county and will be evacuated into the northwest reception area, of which Appleton is the control center.

Fitzpatrick declared the state CD organization is planning to request funds for at least 10 full time people. There are nine now, plus three from other state departments.

Green Bay Plan

Joseph Bourassa, of the survival plan project staff and author of the Green Bay target area survival plan, said the Green Bay plan will be distributed in about two weeks. The Green Bay plan is the state plan for a single area, detailing evacuation routes, resources for aiding evacuees and emergency services.

Work has started on a control center for the Green Bay target area in Pulaski. In the event of evacuation, Green Bay and Brown county officials would move to Shawano and a control center would be set up at Pulaski. Major evacuation instructions and information would be fed to and from the Stevens Point state control center through Appleton.

Auxiliary policemen, who would manage the evacuation traffic, are lagging. Ira Catlin, deputy co-ordinator of safety services, told the group. Brown county's quota is 518 and 140 men have completed the training with 300 under training.

$64,000 Challenge Sponsor Cancels; TV Show Off Air

New York — The P. Lorillard company has withdrawn as a sponsor of "The $64,000 Challenge," a television quiz show. The program is going off the air.

The cancellation, announced yesterday, "does not concern any accusation made against the show," its producer said. Last week, the Rev. Charles E. Jackson, a Nashville minister, said he was given the answer to a question in advance when he was a contestant.

Entertainment Productions, Inc., producer of the show, has denied his charge.

Steve Carlin, head of the Entertainment Productions, said he would continue to seek a sponsor for the program.

Earlier this week, the tobacco company's advertising agency reported the sponsor was "greatly disturbed over the unfavorable publicity" received by the show when the minister leveled his charge.

A CBS spokesman said the two firms decided in July not to continue sponsoring the program after the end of the summer TV season.

Lorillard later changed its decision and planned to sponsor the show on NBC, where it was to appear on Thursday nights.

Only Soviets Can Start War Through Far East, HST States

Talks With Reds All Right but Probably Won't Help in Solution

BY HARRY S. TRUMAN

I do not think there will be a war in the Pacific unless red China launches it and the Soviet Union abets it. It is just that plain. The probing tactics of the Chinese communists over Quemoy and Matsu are part of a reckless campaign to determine whether they can get full support from the Kremlin, and whether we will stand up to their use of force to take over Quemoy, Matsu and Formosa.

The only role of our military forces in the Formosan straits is to prevent any mad adventure which could set off a third world war. These forces are no threat to the Chinese people or any other people. We have no territorial ambitions there or elsewhere.

Until such a time as there is absolute assurance the communists have abandoned their aim of territorial expansion, I cannot see that we have any other choice but to meet them and thwart them at every point where it is necessary.

It would be folly and dangerous for us to abandon Formosa to the communists as long as they are aggressive-minded. For that reason, it is vital to protect Formosa as an important bastion—one of a number of such strategic bases the free world depends upon to safeguard the peace. Formosa could be the launching point for communist assaults on the Philippines, Korea and Japan.

Talks All Right

I think part of the red Chinese probing tactics is to engage in talks with us, and I would not discourage any talks they wish to have. But we have had considerable experience with the kind of talks red Chinese conduct. We have only to recall the interminable talks over Korea, which resulted in no final solution, and the protracted ambassadorial negotiations in Geneva over release of American prisoners, again with no results.

We should therefore not expect too much from further talks. Yet we must not lose our patience. At the same time, we should never drop our guard against the possibility of sudden maneuvers involving direct or indirect aggression such as took place in the Middle East and has now been shifted to the Far East.

It is conceivable, of course, that red China can recklessly start a war and drag the Soviet Union into it. It would not surprise me that this possibility is causing Khrushchev considerable worry.

Unless Khrushchev can control the Chinese reds to the extent of curbing their recklessness in the Far East, the situation might get out of hand. The Kremlin may have created its own Frankenstein monster.

Chiang Opposed

On the other hand, it is perfectly obvious that Chiang Kai-shek cannot start a war. He would need our support in such a venture, and we are irrevocably opposed to starting a war. We are for peace and negotiations through the United Nations. If Khrushchev is trying to get red China into the United Nations, he is going about it in the wrong way. Red China cannot shoot foreign policy in the Pacific. Reality and experience, however, compelled the administration to realize they had misjudged the situation, and they did an about-face.

Lest we forget, Chiang Kai-shek was our ally during World War II. Stalin and Russia agreed to back his leadership of the Chinese people after long negotiations in Moscow, and Chiang Kai-shek helped, with Russia's Stalin, Britain's Churchill, France's de Gaulle and the United States to set up the United Nations.

The Russians later betrayed Chiang Kai-shek and began to work with Mao Tse-tung. Chiang Kai-shek was unable to control his own generals, and when the balance of concern in the islands of Quemoy and Matsu. They miss arms which we had supplied for the defense of China fell into the hands of the Chinese communists, Chiang had to transfer his government to Formosa.

Whatever we may think of Chiang Kai-shek's handling of his situation, or our own judgment of it at the time, he was our friend and ally during grave times, and he is still considered by millions as a symbol of a once free China.

When the present administration in Washington took office, it reversed the American

Miss Main Point

I do not go along with some of our leaders—including some of my own party—as to the extent of our interests or the balance of concern in the islands of Quemoy and Matsu. They miss the point: this is not a question of the Chinese but of the Chinese communists, who are attempting by force to achieve what should be decided by talks and negotiations.

Whenever and wherever we are challenged by the communists in their constant probing for weak spots in our determination to protect our freedom and the peace, we must meet that challenge resolutely, swiftly, and as a united people.

We have seen what indecision, drifting and partisanship does to hurt our position in the free world. We have only to look at the tragedy of Indo-China, the separation from us of our Allies during the Suez crisis, and the bleak outlook in the Middle East until we took a stand.

Our friendship for the people of China is historic and deep. We were the first nation to turn the indemnities of the Boxer rebellion back to the Chinese people for student education. We never had an exploitive interest in China, and during her many misfortunes with flood, famine and disease we helped in every way we could.

China again could be a great force for civilization and influential in the councils of the world, if she moderated her approach to her neighbors and to the west.

India Re-Evaluation

I read with interest Prime Minister Nehru's recent statement that Quemoy, Matsu and Formosa should come under unified Chinese sovereignty, but that it should come about through peaceful discussion. I note from this that the prime minister may be undergoing a re-evaluation of communist methods and communist intentions and that he has some misgivings about their behavior. This is a gain for the people who want to put an end to aggression in whatever name or guise.

The situation in Quemoy and Matsu cannot be isolated into a local issue. It is part of a world crisis and should be treated as a major element in a global struggle for survival.

Since the initiative is always with the aggressor, we cannot declare in advance, nor can we always anticipate, where it may become essential for us to draw a line and defend our position. We can do nothing to prevent the communists from plotting and raiding, but we must always be prepared to stop them when, in the judgment of our allies and ourselves, they must be stopped in the interest of the security of the free world.

I go on hoping that one day the people of Russia and the people of red China will make their voices heard and compel their leaders to change to the ways of peace and honest negotiation. (Copyright, 1958)
